

About us

Convergent's core philosophy of creating trusted partnerships and win-win solutions results in an ability to identify highly unique non-intermediated investment opportunities. The team has vast experience taking a creative approach to deal-making creating 'first of its kind' deal structures, followed by a relentless focus on performance improvement. Through our platform companies, our goal is to facilitate industry consolidation via bolt-on acquisitions.

Investment criteria

Convergent will consider deals that fit the following investment criteria:

- Deal sizes: flexible approach to deal size based on needs of the company or selling shareholders
- Capital structure agnostic: capital structure based on the company's needs
- Buyout and significant minority: friendly transactions with active management support
- Platform / Bolt-on opportunities: platform companies enable consolidation in related market segments
- Financial discipline: cash flow generative businesses proven across business cycles
- Excellent management teams: Matching our guiding principles and ethical standards

Convergent will not consider deals of the following nature:

- ESG non-compliant sectors including tobacco, narcotic drugs, weapons, gambling, and pornography
- Extraction and production of thermal coal and unconventional oil and gas

ESG Approach

Convergent is a pioneer in 'active ESG management' within the Indian ecosystem. Our team has extensive investment and portfolio management experience, combined with the belief that adherence to ESG principles is a win-win for the portfolio company, its stakeholders, and the community at large. To ensure the highest standards of ESG compliance, we have developed a comprehensive ESG due diligence process with more than 25 evaluation criteria and are empowered to bring about ESG-related improvements in our portfolio companies.

Team

Convergent is led by Harsha Raghavan, an industry veteran with years of investment experience, who previously founded and led Fairfax's investment activities in India.
